

Change of Street Name / Suburb Name Checklist

This checklist is provided to help you identify and contact those businesses who will need to know that your address has changed. The numbers of the most commonly used services have been provided, however if you find that your service provider is not listed, you can usually get their phone number from the bills that they send.

To help you remember who you have contacted, boxes are provided for you to tick once you have contacted your service provider.

When you call, let them know that your

Department of Lands and Land Titles Office

There is no need to change your address with the department of lands or land titles office, as your property is identified by its DP number, not its street address. The land titles office only uses street addresses for reference purposes. Your solicitor can update this information with the Land Titles the next time a transfer of ownership occurs.
